

The Doña Ana County Assessor

Invites you to our first community meeting for business, livestock and property owners on:

February 9, 2011
from 6 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.
at the Government Center located at 845 N. Motel Blvd.

My commitment to our community will begin with this first meeting to convey my goals for the 2011 tax year. I will also provide an introduction to understanding your property assessment and the process for protesting your property valuation. I will be available to answer any question or concerns regarding your property valuations.
