TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. I understand and agree that I am responsible for all costs associated with connecting to the wastewater system including the physical construction from my home to the wastewater collection line. Financial assistance may be available from Doña Ana County or other sources to pay for these costs. Service connections shall be constructed according to County specifications.
2. I understand and agree that although I may request billing to be sent to another party, I, the property owner, am responsible for all wastewater service and connection charges. In addition, I am responsible to update my account billing information if modification is required.
3. I understand and agree that only one service connection is permitted per application for service and no additional connections into the line servicing this property will be permitted without specific approval from the County.
4. I understand and agree that the County is not liable for damage to my property due to backflow of the wastewater system, failure of supply, interruption of service or any other cause outside the direct control of the County.
5. I understand and agree that I must comply with the standards, policies, rules and regulations as set forth in the Doña Ana County Wastewater Ordinance 210-04 or subsequent requirements as adopted by the BOCC. Copies of the Ordinance are available upon request.
6. I understand and agree the wastewater service charge may be billed and combined with another utility service account, e.g. water, gas, or electric. The understand and agree that utility service may be subject to additional charges and/or disconnection, as defined in the utility provider's Disconnection Policy, should any of the service charges become past due.
7. I understand and agree the County and its agents shall have access to property and equipment located on my premises at all reasonable and necessary times for any purpose associated with or in the furtherance of its business operations.
8. I understand and agree that failure to abide by these Terms and Conditions of this agreement may result in disconnection of service, fines, and penalties including criminal prosecution.
